On August 21st, we experienced a total eclipse of the sun. An eclipse that could only be seen in its totality in sections of the United States. The last time there was an occurrence of a total solar eclipse in the United States was 99 years ago. Even viewing the video of this eclipse was spectacular and awe inspiring. During such moments we are once again reminded of a God who is the ultimate creator. A God who created beauty and gave us human beings the ability to enjoy that beauty. We are reminded that God also created us. “I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well.” (Psalm 139:14) In all our diversity, God created us in God’s image and as such, all are filled with the beauty and wonder of the creator. When we forget this divine truth, we risk becoming divided, suspicious of those unlike us, jealous, angry, and hostile. But we are the church, and our calling is to remind ourselves and those we encounter of this fundamental truth. Bishop Macholz says it so well in the letter below, written to God’s people in the Upstate New York Synod:

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,
"There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus." Galatians 3:28.

The events of the past weekend in Charlottesville, VA remind us, perhaps more clearly than any other recent event, of the hatred and racism that continues to exist and find its way into the daily lives of this nation and the world; racism and hatred that has no place in our society and world. We are not exempt from it nor can we excuse ourselves from it; each of us bears some responsibility due to our silence or complicity or continued inability to speak out regarding the impact of this heinous reality in our lives.

While we can attempt to confront this reality as individuals; we are better together facing racism in all its complexities. Working as a community of faithful people is the direction to take.

We cannot solve this with a simple program or gathering or event; racism has been around forever, we are in this for the long haul. We need to find ways to move forward, not letting this event pass and our complacency return until it happens again.

We must make a move, even if it is a small move. Our faith and understanding of compassion, repentance, reconciliation and the Gospel must stand at the heart of whatever we do, recognizing and stating that we are all created in the image of God and loved by that same God.

So, where do we begin? I suggest we begin with prayer and continue praying, for our connection with the One who calls us forth as light and life is the only thing that will remain constant and helpful. In light of that, I propose that we set aside Monday for focused prayer. For many it begins the new work week. Sunday is the Sabbath when we gather to be fed and nourished by Word and Sacrament, but Monday, for many of us, takes us out into the world to live out our faith and hope. If a common time would be helpful I would suggest 1:30, the moment when Heather Heyer was struck and killed by a car driven into a crowd. This would also connect, at some levels, with Moral Mondays, the day chosen in many states to gather in state capitals for demonstrations regarding, among other things, budgeting and its implications for the least among us.

Having said that, when you pray makes no difference; that you pray is the request. Initially, on a weekly basis, I will send out a prayer from resources available to offer a point of focus. We can certainly offer our own prayers as well. Here is the first option for your use, should you choose to head in this direction.

Grant, O God, that your holy and life-giving Spirit may so move every human heart and especially the hearts of the people of this land, that barriers which divide us may crumble, suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease; that our divisions being healed, we may live in justice and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Book of Common Prayer

I am also suggesting that this or another prayer of your choosing be included in the weekly prayers of the church when you gather to worship simply to keep this at the forefront of our lives together until racism is eradicated.

Finally, find ways in your life to enter into the conversation around racism. Come along side those most affected by these realities, accompany others on the way, listen deeply while putting aside your own preconceived notions and understandings. We have much to learn, people of God, and sometimes we do that best when we get out of our own way.

Moving forward I will include this topic on the agendas of every meeting I either lead or attend, bringing it up again and again so that we don’t lose sight of it in our lives, asking how we are working with it and finding ways to move forward. Perhaps it might become a part of our Conference assemblies in fall and spring. We can build this conversation into our educational opportunities in our congregations and beyond. I pray you will join me in the days ahead in ways that make sense within your life and community.

In Christ,

John S. Macholz, Bishop

“I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality... I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word.”

(This is an edited version of Bishop Macholz’s letter. See Pastor Hoh for details.)

Just Breathe: Contemplation at Good Shepherd

Labor Day…whew…we made it! Labor Day marks the end of summer and signals a return to school, to work, to “normal”. But what good is normal if we continue to busy away our lives? Perhaps it’s time to try something different….to stop, relax, breathe…and invite God to sit with us.

Contemplation has been a restorative Christian Tradition for nearly 2000 years. No special skills are required. And, although it can be done alone, many find it helpful to sit with others.

Contemplative practices (such as centering prayer, meditation, the Jesus prayer) ask that we slow down enough to catch up with ourselves. Rather than talk, we listen. Rather than seek, we observe. Rather than do, we simply rest ... in the loving presence of our Creator.

If you are new to meditation or contemplation, don't worry. All that is required is the ability to breathe! Each session features a topic chosen by the leader. No preparation is necessary. Gatherings take place at Good Shepherd on Wednesdays from 7PM to 7:30PM.

Please join us at Good Shepherd as we offer thanks for this precious gift.
From the Music Corner

“Music is the art of the prophets, the only art that can calm the agitations of the soul; it is one of the most magnificent and delightful presents God has given us.”

Martin Luther

We appreciate the Good Shepherd Choir for providing musical offerings the entire summer. The dedication of Kathy Crouse, Carol Phelps, Atif Dean, Maggie Gallucci, Betty Suarez, Susan Perkins, Bertie Cole, Meg Winters, Elaine Sacco, Christine Kleinhenz, and Carolyn Wolfe, allowed us to make a joyful noise in sung prayer.

We will resume our regular choir rehearsal at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, 9/7/17. We extend an invitation to you to sing with us. We are a friendly group and sing traditional and contemporary styles of Christian music. We are flexible and offer two rehearsals, Thursday evenings from 6:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. and Sunday mornings from 10:00 a.m.-10:15 a.m. We are a multigenerational choir and welcome all ages beginning at age twelve.

We are in need of instrumentalists to play during preludes, offertory and postludes. This is an excellent opportunity for children, teens and young adults to participate in the service. Please consider sharing your talents on a monthly or quarterly basis.

If you are called to participate in our music ministry (vocal choir or instrumentalist), please speak to myself or any of the choir members after service. You can also leave a message at the Church office.

Carl Rorie Alexandrov, Director of Music

Just a reminder that we will return to our regular worship schedule on Sunday, September 10th. There will be two services at 8:00AM and 10:30AM.
Save the Date – Giffy’s Fall BBQ

Friday October 6th from 4:00-6:00pm. Chicken Dinners, Pulled Pork Sandwich Dinners and Chicken a la carte only! Tickets available starting Sunday September 10th.

Book Club

The next meeting of the book club will be on Monday September 25th at 7:00pm at Scarborough’s. We will discuss Go Set A Watchman by Harper Lee.

Twenty-six-year-old Jean Louise Finch—“Scout”—returns home from New York City to visit her aging father, Atticus. Set against the backdrop of the civil rights tensions and political turmoil that were transforming the South, Jean Louise’s homecoming turns bittersweet when she learns disturbing truths about her close-knit family, the town, and the people dearest to her. Featuring many of the iconic characters from To Kill a Mockingbird, Go Set a Watchman perfectly captures a young woman, and a world, in painful yet necessary transition out of the illusions of the past—a journey that can only be guided by one’s own conscience.

For any questions, please see Lori Meredith.

Save the Date - Fall Blood Drive

Good Shepherd's fall blood drive will be Wednesday, October 25th 1:30PM - 6PM. All healthy individuals over 17 and weighing 110 pounds are eligible to donate. The interval for single red cell donations is 56 days and for double red donations is 112 days. This summer due to severe weather conditions, the blood supply has been very limited. If you would like to donate for the first time or have questions concerning donating please contact Carol Phelps at 355-3901.

Tuesday Morning Bible Study

The first meeting of the Tuesday Morning Bible study this Fall will be on September 12th at 9:45am.

Any questions please contact Carolyn Wolfe!

Cluster Collections for September and October

Two unique opportunities to help those in need in our community.

This year, we have a special, one-time opportunity to provide new items for those Damien Center members who will be residing at the apartments, which will be part of the new Damien Center building. A registry has been set up through Bed, Bath and Beyond, where individuals or groups of people can register to purchase items, which will specifically fit into the apartments. The idea of the registry is to choose necessities that match the colors, sizes, etc., of the apartments, so that each person will have new bedding, towels, etc. and so that there aren’t duplicates of some items and not enough of others. Go to the registry and choose Option 2. (https://www.albanydamiencenter.org/how-you-can-help.html) You can use your 20% off coupons for these items.

September & October Cluster Collection

This Fall the Cluster churches will again collect much-needed supplies for the Overflow Homeless Shelter. The following items may be left in the donation box in the narthex:

- Men’s flip-flops (sizes L and XL)
- Powdered creamer and Coffee
- Spray Disinfectants
- Laundry Products (liquid, powder, pods and dryer sheets)
- Plastic Silverware and Paper Products (heavy duty plates, bowls, cups, napkins, paper towels, tissues and toilet paper)

A BIG thank you to Michael Gerrish for sorting out all our internet and email troubles over the summer. 😊😊😊

Voting Members at GSLC

Voting members are confirmed members who have communed in this congregation and have made a contribution of record to this congregation during the current or preceding calendar year. If you have a question about your eligibility to vote at meetings of the congregation in 2017 or 2018, please call the church office at 518-458-1562.
Berry Festival Thank You

The Outreach and Evangelism Committee would like to thank everyone who came to this year’s Berry Festival and those of you who gave free will donations. As a result of your generous giving we received $715.00 and one half of the proceeds have gone to the United States Committee for Refugees and Immigrants and the other half has gone to the Bridges Program (providing food to refugee families).

A special thanks to all of the volunteers who picked, cut up, and served berries; and those who made the delicious biscuits; and those who helped out cleaning up after the Berry Festival. They are as follows: Carol Phelps, Bertie Cole, Elaine Sacco, Barb Rasmussen, Dorothy Wimble, Susan Perkins, Carolyn Wolfe, Marilyn Graver, JoAn Walker, Meg Winters, Mary Long, Betty Suarez, Colleen Ward, and Danny Patrick.

Everyone had a great time and some folks from the community were very generous in their giving and were very pleased about where the free will donations were going. See you all next year at the 13th Annual Berry Festival!

Pest Control

In recent months you may have seen ants or signs of mice around Good Shepherd. Hopefully they are gone by now.

Paul Spofford stepped up and interviewed pest control firms and got price quotes. We hired Absolute Pest Control, a local family-owned firm and they have completed the first application. They will be back every three months, but will also return immediately at no charge if a pest problem arises.

Per recommendations from the experts, Paul also took the lead in clearing brush and limbs back away from our building to eliminate a potential return route for the ants. Thank you, Paul.
Members of the Church Council met at the home of President Marjorie Raymond in July for an informal get together. Pastor Pamela led a discussion about A Field Guide for the Missional Congregation.

The Council voted by e-mail to approve an extermination contract with Absolute Pest Control. Mark Silo and Paul Spofford trimmed shrubs and trees by the building, as recommended by the exterminator.

At the August meeting, the Council approved the use of a Photography Release Form for Minor Children and affirmed that the names of children will not be associated with pictures that are posted on the web site or on Facebook. The Council also approved the purchase of a trimmer/edger for the church.

A Special Committee has been appointed to review the membership roll, identify voting members, and make recommendations to the Church Council concerning inactive members. A Special Committee has been appointed to review the Building Use Policy and make recommendations to the Church Council.

The Finance Committee will meet in September to review the financial status of our congregation. We have a projected deficit of $20,000 in the Operating Fund for 2017. Approximately $50,000 remains to be paid on the Faith Works mortgage.

Questions concerning Council actions may be referred to President Marjorie Raymond (president@gslcl.org) or any member of the Council.

One Gift = Two Ministries

Our Upstate NY Women of the ELCA Ingathering at our September Convention in Utica, NY will be helping the women incarcerated in the Albion Women's Correctional Facility in Albion, NY who have been knitting hats for the Seafarers!

Seafarers is an ecumenical mission of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Seafarers International House (sihnc.org) is a multi-faith, multi-national harbor of hospitality seeking to nurture the human spirit and foster human dignity by providing pastoral care, social assistance, advocacy and prayer.

The “knit hats” made by the inmates at the Albion Correctional Facility are given to shipworkers at Christmastime along with other items in a bag by the port Chaplains.

Thank you for bringing any amount of worsted weight wool yarn for our Upstate NY WELCA Convention ingathering – September 22-24, Utica, NY!

Faith Matters: Jesus Politics

When our Sunday morning faith-in-daily-life discussion group began last year with Shane Claiborne's "Jesus for President," we expected to parallel the 2016 election season and quickly move on.

Instead we found ourselves diving into scripture history, reminded of God's ongoing covenant with a community set apart from Empire and of Jesus' revolutionary call to the Third Way.

What Jesus asks of us ... to wake up, to care for the poor, the sick, the prisoners, to forgive seventy times seven, to love even our enemies ... seems even more impossible today.

And so -- starting Sunday, Sept 24th -- we'll continue the conversation with Shane, wrestling with living our faith in the midst of tough questions about our environment, prison reform, economic justice, war and military presence, immigration, capital punishment.

Join us Sunday mornings at 9:15 am -- coffee, tea and refreshments fuel our discussion.
Dear Friends,
Thank you for your generous donation of $250 to the Regional Food Bank’s BackPack Program. In 2016 we provided over 36 million pounds of food to food pantries, soup kitchens and our other member agencies. We continue to do everything we can to meet the need in 2017. Your support is greatly appreciated.
Yours Truly, Mark Quandt, Executive Director

Dear Friend,
Thank you for your donation to Things of My Very Own, Inc. Your donation will help ensure that children are able to stay with their non-abusive family members and out of the foster care system whenever possible. We cannot thank you enough for your generosity and support.
Sincerely, Rayn Boncie, CEO/Founder

News from the Senior Shepherds

In June we decided we were going to make up 16 Personal Care Kits as part of Lutheran World Relief. Committee chairs were given a list of items needed from their members. We need these items by September 22nd so we can make up the kits at our meeting in September. If you have questions, please contact Bertie Cole.

Many of our members have been participating in the Summer Lunch Program held on Thursday at the Schuyler Inn. Many thanks go to Carol Phelps, Bertie Cole and Danny Patrick for the many hours they have spent coordinating everything to make it a success.

Our next meeting will be on September 22nd at 11:00am. Any senior is welcome to come. Thanks!! JoAn

A note from the Call Committee – “We are pleased to announce that we have received the name of a candidate from SYNOD. We are currently beginning the process.”
Seventh Annual Community Fun Day

Please mark your calendars as this year’s Seventh Annual Community Fun Day will be held on Saturday September 23rd from 11:00am to 3:00 pm. This is a fun day for all, where we invite our neighbors, friends, families in the surrounding neighborhood to join us as we will be having children’s activities, informational tables about organizations in the area, flu shots, pony rides and a lot of information about Good Shepherd.

We will also be serving hot dogs, chips, potato nuggets, homemade lemonade, coffee and cookies from 11:00am to 2:00pm at no charge.

Rite Aid who will offer flu and pneumonia shots (will need your health insurance card) and there will be pony rides and a petting zoo for the children. Some of the vendors this year will be Thrivent Financial, Mi Sci Museum, the Yellow Dot Program, the Albany County Sheriff’s Department - Project Life Saver (helping children and adults who wander away), and the Alzheimer’s Association. Who do you know and what ideas do you have for organizations that might want to be a part of this fun event? If you have any ideas and contact people, please speak to Danny Patrick or Carol Phelps.

Again, please save this date and prayerfully consider how you might be a part of this fun event as we welcome everyone to this year’s Seventh Annual Community Fun Day. See you all on Saturday, September 23rd!

Evangelism Workshop

Pastor Norma Malfatti, Director for Evangelical Mission and Assistant to the Bishop, will hold a workshop entitled "Sharing Jesus without Freaking Out" on Saturday, September 30, 2017 from 9:30am to 2:30pm at Good Shepherd. Please call the church office at 458-1562 to reserve your seat!
Summer Lunch Program

It is hard to believe that this year’s Summer Lunch Program at the Schuyler Inn in Menands is just about over for the summer. Without a doubt the Outreach and Evangelism Committee and everyone who has been involved with the summer lunch program, has felt that it has been a huge success. The children and their parents have been so appreciative of the delicious lunches. We have been able to provide the children with underwear, tee shirts, socks and back packs filled with school supplies, as well as snacks and additional school supplies due to three Thrivent grants that folks have applied for. The bulk of the expenses came through a $2,500.00 grant from the ELCA (World Hunger) Domestic Hunger Grants Program.

A very big thanks goes out to all of the members of the congregation who donated food items as well as friends of the congregation who gave generous monetary donations. A special thanks goes out to the many volunteers who got involved with shopping, preparing and serving the lunches. The committee also wanted to bring a spiritual component to the lunch program so each week we brought down the weekly children’s bulletin for the children to color and read with their parents. Mary Long also was instrumental in providing crafts for the children with the theme of “God Loves You”. This was a very big hit with the children and something we would like to continue to do.

We will have a full list of all of the volunteers in our next newsletter after the summer lunch program for this summer has been completed. Thank you again for all that you did to make this such a special ministry.

Acolyte Training

Acolyte training will be held on Sunday, September 17 at 9:30AM in the sanctuary. This is open to any youth 5th grade and up. Please see Mark Kaercher or call the church office if you have any questions!
Rally Day/God’s Work, Our Hands Sunday

The date for the 2017 “God’s work. Our hands.” Sunday is September 10th. As we observe the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, we are reminded of the gospel’s promise that we are freed in Christ to love and serve our neighbors. In “The Freedom of a Christian,” Martin Luther wrote: “A Christian is lord of all, completely free of everything; a Christian is a servant, completely attentive to the needs of all.”

Service activities offer an opportunity for us to explore one of our most basic convictions as Lutherans: that all of life in Jesus Christ—every act of service, in every daily calling, in every corner of life—flows freely from a living, daring confidence in God’s grace.

This year’s service project will be to provide support for needy families through our donations to Grassroot Givers. They list as their mission the following:

Connecting Communities.
We connect with individuals, families and businesses to collect like-new donations. We share these resources with individuals, nonprofits, academic programs, literacy projects and other agencies serving those in need.

Giving with Dignity.
All donations are carefully screened, sorted, sized, organized and displayed. Our mission is to always give with dignity.

Empowering Lives.
Whether it is to get a young man ready for a job interview, help a veteran supplement their budget, or start a child on the road to reading, our goal is to continue to share resources with local families, and help more people move closer to achieving sustainable independence.
For our service project here at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, we will be collecting the following items for donation: small housewares, linens, and books. We’ll make knitted and crocheted washcloths. If you are a knitter, a pattern for knitting a washcloth will be available in the narthex. We’ll also make heart shaped fleece pillows on “Rally Day/God’s Work, Our Hands Sunday.” So make sure you put the date on your calendar. This is an event for the entire family—whether you are a family of ten or a family of one. Married or single, with children or childless, old or young. God show’s no partiality. So come and join us for the celebration: September 10th, from 8:45 to 10:15am. —Pastor Pamela

Huskie’s Heroes Program at Good Shepherd

All of the details of this program are at www.brianhuskie.com, but here are some highlights:

- This program is for high school aged students who would like to leave traditional school and try something more student-centered.
- The class meets twice a week, from 4:30 – 7:30, for three-month trimesters. The first day of class is September 25th.
- We are committed to being active and involved members of the community, project based learning, self-improvement, academics with an emphasis on rhetorical skills and post-secondary planning, and most of all, being curious, responsible, disciplined people.
- You are invited to Good Shepherd Lutheran Church on August 29th from 6pm to 8pm. I will give an overview of the program, give you a copy of the detailed Huskie’s Heroes handbook, and answer any questions you might have.

My e-mail is BHuskie@aol.com and my phone number is (518) 275 – 8947. I hope to see you soon!
